

Mission Statement
College of Health Professions
Institute for Well-Being

The Institute for Well-Being (IWB) provides outstanding interprofessional education experiences for graduate and undergraduate students who engage in high ethical standards and professional behaviors; Advances knowledge through implementation of innovative practice and applied research; Fosters student and faculty engagement in inclusive and diverse communities; and enhances the lives of community members and their families through outreach programs that promote health and well-being. (revised, 2021)