

This Housing Contract ("Contract") is an agreement between Towson University (the "University") and you (also referred to as the "resident" or the "student") (and your parent or guardian if you are under 18 years of age). You are agreeing to pay for housing and dining services at the University. The University will provide you housing and dining services, subject to

Housing Accommodations - Office of Accessibility and Disability Services

Failure to Claim Services.

Keys

Health Insurance

Access to University Housing.

General Conditions.

Confirmation of Contract.

